

Honorable James A. Carmody
Former Judge
Houston, Texas

SUMMARY RESUME

PROFESSIONAL / LEGAL EXPERIENCE

James A. Carmody, Attorney and Arbitrator	2001-Present
Partner – Carmody & Yokubaitis, L.L.P.	1994-2000
Partner – Large National Law Firm	1989-1994
Partner – Head of Litigation Section of a well-known Houston Firm	1975-1988
Municipal Court Judge – Texas City, Texas	1975

Substantial professional experience in civil cases involving intellectual property, and other business matters representing individuals, businesses, consumers, corporations, plaintiffs, and defendants

ARBITRATION / ADR EXPERIENCE

National Arbitration Forum Arbitrator
Arbitrator Training – National Arbitration Forum, 2000-2004
Arbitrator – Fee Dispute Committee of the Harris County Bar Association
Arbitrator – Storm damage and construction cases in insurance coverage disputes
Arbitrator – Numerous Internet UDRP cases and AMSA (American Moving and Storage Association) claims

EDUCATION / PROFESSIONAL TRAINING

University of Arkansas, Juris Doctor, 1973; student editor - Arkansas Law Review; National Moot Court Team
Vanderbilt University, Bachelor of Arts, 1967
Officer – U.S. Navy, 1967-1971

PROFESSIONAL ADMISSIONS / ASSOCIATIONS / ACHIEVEMENTS

Admitted to Practice in Texas, 1974
Admitted to Practice – U.S. District Court for all Districts in Texas
Admitted to Practice – U.S. Supreme Court and U.S. Court of Appeals, Fifth and Eleventh Circuits
Past President – Galveston County Young Lawyers Association
Member – Houston Bar Association and Federal Bar Association
Member – State Bar of Texas and College of State Bar of Texas
Listed in – Who's Who in American Law and Who's Who in America
AV Rating from Martindale-Hubbell (highest attorney rating)
Maintains high legal ethical standards and complies with professional responsibility rules