

PATRICK JAY HINES

703-391-8816 (H) 703-236-4509 (W)

July 2007 – Present: Partner, Cantor Colburn LLP

Head of Trademark and Copyright Practice Group in Alexandria office of four office intellectual property firm. Manage trademark and copyright portfolios of large and medium sized corporations. Oversee trademark services and administrative and judicial enforcement actions of broad-based domestic and international clientele. Chair, International Trademark Association subcommittee on Proof of Confusion. Member, Intellectual Property Owner's Trademark Office Practice Committee. Serves as arbitrator in domain name disputes for the National Arbitration Forum and World Intellectual Property Organization. Adjunct professor in the LL.M. program of the Munich Intellectual Property Law Center of Max Planck Institute.

May 2005 – July 2007: Partner, Baker Hostetler

Member of Intellectual Property Group. Assist domestic and foreign clients with establishing, defending and enforcing intellectual property rights. Trademark and copyright clearance, registration and maintenance. Due diligence and transactional work in the context of acquisitions, audits, assignments and licenses. Heavy emphasis on Trademark Trial and Appeal Board opposition and cancellation proceedings. Extensive international trademark practice.

1992 - May 2005: Partner, Oblon, Spivak, McClelland, Maier & Neustadt, P.C.

Member of trademark and copyright practice group. Active in the International Trademark Association's Madrid System subcommittee. Former Adjunct Professor, Trademarks and Unfair Competition, George Mason University School of Law. Written extensively on the European Community Trademark, the Madrid Protocol and the Trademark Law Treaty. Served as private sector advisor to the US Delegation to the Diplomatic Conference on the Conclusion of the Trademark Law Treaty.

1987 - 1992: Senior Attorney, U.S. Patent and Trademark Office

Supervised and trained Examining Attorneys in the prosecution of trademark applications in the field of computers and high technology goods and services. Oversaw the disposition of the more difficult, complex and sensitive cases. Represented the PTO in appeals before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board. Served in the Office of the Assistant Commissioner and received Bronze Medal Award for special work project on automation aspects of implementation of the Trademark Law Revision Act of 1988. Outstanding performance rating and excellent record at the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board.

Prior Legal Position: Associate Attorney, Graubard, Moskovitz & McCauley

Specialized in international trade, customs and administrative law. Represented steel importers in antidumping and countervailing duty cases before the Commerce Department, the International Trade Commission and the Court of International Trade.

Education:

University of the Pacific-McGeorge School of Law, Certificate in Advanced International Legal Studies through Salzburg University, 1979

The Lewis and Clark Law School, J.D. 1978

The Hague Academy of International Law, Public International Law Course, 1977

University of Notre Dame, B.A., cum laude, 1975

Professional Associations:

District of Columbia and Virginia Bars

American Bar Association

International Trademark Association

Intellectual Property Owners

American Society of International Law