

ITEANU & Associés
Avocats à la Cour d'Appel de Paris
LAW OFFICE
PARIS, FRANCE

Maître Olivier ITEANU
Avocat

Olivier ITEANU was born on June 28, 1962 in Paris.
A French citizen, he is married with four children.

Having graduated from the University of Paris II (Assas) with a degree in Law, he has been a member of the Bar of Paris since December 1988.

Olivier ITEANU manages a law Firm he founded, which has a dedicated practice to Information Technology.

He serves as a Professor in Telecommunications Law at the University of Paris XI (Faculty Jean Monnet).

Olivier ITEANU also holds the following positions:

- Member of the Board of the Asp Forum since June 2004
- Chairman of the French Chapter of the Internet Society (ISOC-FRANCE) from June 2000 to March 2003
- Chairman of the European Co-ordination of the Chapters of the Internet Society from June 2000 until June 2001
- Expert at the domain name administrative panel of the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO)
- Arbitrator of the International Forum Arbitration (USA)
- Nominated by the European Commission as member of the Internet Protocol Version 6 (IPV6) Task Force
- Member of the TENOR professional group (ETNA FRANCE), a trade organization bringing together the suppliers of vocal and fax resources and services. Vice-Chairman from March 1997 to March 1999 and main contact for its legal committee
- Head of the Legal Committee of the Association Française du Commerce et des Echanges Electroniques (AFCEE) (French association of electronic commerce and trade) until its merger with AFTEL in 2000

In March 2001, Olivier ITEANU has also been nominated as one of the nine members of the At Large Study Committee (ALSC) by the board of the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names And Numbers (ICANN), the worldwide regulator for domain names and IP addresses. He is one of the two European representatives.

He has been also nominated as a member of the selecting committee of the Internet Review Panel (IRP), one division at the top of ICANN's structure for two years.

Olivier ITEANU is the author of the following publications

- ❖ the first French book treating Internet and Law "Internet and the Law" Editions Eyrolles (May 1996)
- ❖ an AFTEL and ISOC report on domain name reform dated May 1997 (co authorship)
- ❖ "the new telecom market" Editions Eyrolles (May 1998)
- ❖ "dictionnaire permanent Internet et le droit" (three volumes) published by Les Editions Législatives in May 2001
- ❖ "Tous Cybercriminels" Editions JM Laffont April 2004

Each year since 1995, Olivier ITEANU has published more than 30 contributions in professional magazines such as "Informatiques Magazine", "Computer Reseller News", "Telecom Business Life", "Netcost Security" Pc Direct" etc.

Approved Representative and Adviser of Agence pour la Protection des Programmes (APP). (Agency for Programme Protection) since 1989, he is a member of the Editorial Committee of EXPERTISES des systèmes d'informations, the sole monthly magazine treating Information Technology and Law in France, and member of the editorial committee of the Quaterly magazine Droit de l'Informatique et des Télécommunications.

He has also been Chairman of the Ethics Committee of the professional organization TENOR (ECTA France)

He is responsible for the Information Technology course at the French School for Bar of Paris (Ecole Française des Barreaux).

He also contributes as a speaker for the judges before the French School for magistrates in Bordeaux and Paris.

Olivier ITEANU gives two times a year to professionals a training on « Information Technology Contracts » for the training company Lamy Formation and on « Internet and the law » for the training company EFE.

In 2001, he was the sponsor of the high-level University degree in Information Technology of the University of Poitiers and in 2002 the sponsor of the first class “Public Law and Information Technology” of the University of Paris X (Nanterre).