

Kyung Jik KWAK

Born in Cheju, Korea in 1958

Admitted to the Korean and New York Bars

EDUCATION

- Seoul National University, College of Law (LL. B., 1981)
- Seoul National University, Graduate School of Law (LL.M., 1990)
- Columbia Law School (LL.M., 1991)
- Yale Law School (Visiting Fulbright Scholar 1999/2000)

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Judge Advocate, Korean Air Force (1983-1986)
- Judge, Eastern Branch of Seoul District Court (1986), Seoul Civil District Court (1988), Pusan District Court (1992), Pusan High Court of Appeals (1993), Seoul High Court of Appeals (1995-1998)
- Constitution Research Officer of the Constitutional Court (1995 - 1997)
- Senior Judge, Changwon District Court (1998), Incheon District Court (2000)
- Partner of Bae, Kim & Lee (2001 - present)

PUBLICATIONS

- Study on the Limitations on Copyright
- Assessment of Loss of Earning Capacity: Theory & Practice in the U.S (in Korean & English)
- The Concept of Originality
- Protection of Neighboring Rights
- Report on the 10th Conference of European Constitutional Courts
- Protection of Database in Japan (in English)
- Infringement on Trade Secrets, Remedies and Procedural Issues in Litigation
- Rethinking Reclamation Right to the Inheritance
- Creditor's Status in Composition Process
- Criminal Law Protection for Trade Secrets
- On Validity of so-called Optional Arbitration Clause

AWARD

The Best Law Article Award by Korean Legal Center (1999).

MEMBER

Korean, Seoul and New York Bar Associations.

LANGUAGE

Korean and English