

Dr. Katalin SZAMOSI

Attorney at Law
President of the Board
Managing Partner
S.B.G.&K. Patent and Law Office
Budapest, Hungary

Katalin Szamosi graduated (summa cum laude) from the Faculty of Law of Eötvös Lóránd University of Science in 1980 and thereafter specialised in foreign trade law at the ELTE Institute for Further Legal Studies.

She is a registered arbitrator at the WIPO and National Arbitration Forum in domain name disputes. She is a guest lecturer on the topic of industrial property protection at the Economic University of Budapest and is a tutor at the prestigious Bibó College. She holds lectures and is the organizer of Hungarian and foreign professional conferences on a regular basis.

She joined the firm in 1983, has been a Member of the Board since 1994. In 2002 she was elected as President of the Board. Her professional activities were recognised with the Eötvös-award given by the Hungarian Bar in 2002.

Her special areas include legal representation in the fields of intellectual property, unfair competition, patent and trademark litigation, copyright law, preparation of license, franchise and technological transfer agreements, business law, representation of foreign investors, property transactions.

She speaks English and German and is the author of numerous publications including Value of Trademarks (Monthly Periodical of the Trademark Association); Several Articles in the publication of AIPPI; Trademarks and Corporate Law, (World Economics Weekly); Harmonization of Trademark Law and Competition Law (Legal Forum); Problems of Domain name registration with special regard to trademark rights (Hungarian Trade Mark World, 1999); Conflict between Custom and Civil Law, 1999 and Action Against Counterfeiters in Hungary (Managing Intellectual Property, 1999).

She is a member of the Budapest Bar, the Hungarian Association for the Protection of Industrial Property and Copyright (member of the Board), the Hungarian Trademark Association (Vice President), LIDC (President of the Hungarian Group), IBA, DACH, INTA, ITMA, PTMG, AIPPI and LES.